SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF CHAM BER OF COMMERCE WILL MEET HENRY McLAUGHLIN THIS AFTERNOON.

A special committee of the Chamber of Commerce will meet with Mr Henry McLaughlin this afternoon in Hon. W. A. Blount's office to inquire into the sections of right of way in this county on which, in Mr. Mc-Laughlin's judgment, excessive prices are asked by the owners. Mr. Mc-Laughlin has filed with the secretary plots of five such stretches, of various lengths, and these will first be examined as to value and prices asked of Mr. McLaughlin. The committee, under instructions, will then take such further steps as it may deem proper to assist in the securing of right of way, in order that grading of the road bed may begin at once in this county, for the new road to Mobile.

"The circumstances of the murder were so brutal that it is not likely that his attorneys will make any effort to secure a commutation of the sentence, though they made a hard fight before the courts to save his neck, and did succeed in securing what is practically an acquittal of Silas Danels and Luther Russ, who were indicted with Mose for the murder, since the supreme court granted them a new trial on the ground that the verdict was not warranted by the evidence, When the death warrant was read to Daniels Tuesday morning he seem-

FEDERAL JUDGE WELL KNOWN AND LIKED IN PENSACOLA WAS IN WASHINGTON ENDEAVORING TO GET REAPPOINTMENT.

The following special from Wash ington will be read with interest in Pensacola, where Judge Hundley is well known and liked:

Not until yesterday did Acting Judge Hundley learn that President Taft was under the impression that he was down in Alabama holding court instead of lingering here in Washington pulling every string possible to secure a permanent appointment.

It seems that Collector Joe Thomp son was making the rounds at the capitol, and naturally got to talking of the Hundley case in trying to find out about when action was likely to e taken. It is said that Thompson was told that President Taft might not appoint a judge for two weeks or more because Hundley was at Birmingham holding court and there was no necessity for haste on that account. The would-be Republican boss is then reported to have exclaimed, "But he isn't there. My gracious, he is still

The acting judge evidently got a quick tip from somebody, for he pulled out for Birmingham on the first train he could get.

It will be recalled that in the state ments given out Monday by Senators Bankhead and Joanston (and which Thompson had not seen) in regard to their visit Sunday to the president, they specially mentioned that Mr. Taft said Hundley was in Alabama holding court, and that was why he would not hurry.

All of the Alabamians, Republicans and Democrats, who came on to take a hand in the judgeship fight, have gone to their homes. Among the last to depart was E. K. Campbell of Bir-He Lost Out.
